Tammy R. Shea joined Cozen O'Connor in 2011 from Epstein Becker Green Wickliff & Hall. Tammy is a member of the Houston office, focusing her practice on commercial litigation.

Tammy represents clients in state and federal courts on matters related to energy law, commercial law, premises liability, medical malpractice, products liability, and environmental law. She represents clients in administrative proceedings before the Public Utility Commission of Texas and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, and in matters before the Electric Reliability Council of Texas.

Tammy has been named a Texas Super Lawyer Rising Star in the 2005-2008 editions of Texas Monthly. She is a frequent writer on various litigation topics, including electronic discovery practices and procedures in federal and state court. In December 2005, she was recognized as an "edInsider" by Electronic Discovery Resource because of her knowledge and experience in electronic discovery. In addition, Tammy has previously served on the editorial board of the Houston Lawyer.
