

JONATHAN B. KREISBERG is the Regional Director for Region 34 of the National Labor Relations Board in Hartford, Connecticut. He is responsible for all matters arising under the National Labor Relations Act within the State of Connecticut, requiring his supervision of field attorneys and field examiners engaged in the investigation and litigation of unfair labor practices, Federal Court litigation, and the processing of representation cases.

Mr. Kreisberg began his career with the NLRB in 1975 as a law clerk in the Administrative Law Judge's Division at the NLRB's headquarters in Washington, D.C. Upon his graduation from law school in 1977, he served for 2 and ½ years as staff counsel to former NLRB Member John A. Penello. He then transferred in late 1979 to the newly created Hartford subregional office as a field attorney. In 1985 he was promoted to a Supervisory Attorney, and in 1988 he became the first Regional Attorney when the Hartford office was converted to full regional office status. He is a member of the bar of the State of Connecticut and the District of Columbia, and is a past Chair of the Labor & Employment Law Section of the Connecticut Bar Association.

Mr. Kreisberg earned his undergraduate degree from the Cornell University School of Industrial & Labor Relations in 1974, and a law degree from the American University, Washington College of Law in 1977.
