Tom has experience working on a wide variety of cases, including multimillion-dollar contract disputes, catastrophic personal injury and property damage claims, white collar investigations and defense, shareholder derivative suits, and class actions. He has also been involved in complex and unprecedented disputes with the federal and state governments regarding their power and regulatory authority, resulting in one instance of a $5 million settlement in favor of the client. Tom has worked with attorneys in cities all over the country and currently serves as the associate representative on the firm's Political Action Committee. He is licensed to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Tom graduated from Villanova University School of Law, cum laude, and Boston University, cum laude, with a Bachelor of Arts in political science. Tom graded onto Villanova Law Review after his first year. He interned for the Honorable Berle Schiller of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
