Scott helps Pennsylvania municipalities and corporations secure funding for a vast array of infrastructure development projects, including airports, hospitals, retirement communities, and higher education facilities. Scott analyzes, structures, and evaluates public and private debt offerings for issuers, underwriters, trustees, borrowers, and lenders in connection with a variety of tax-exempt and taxable financings. His experience includes overseeing industrial development bonds, revenue bonds, 501(c)(3) conduit financings, general obligation bonds, tax-exempt leases, and financings through the Pennsylvania Infrastructure Investment Authority and the Rural Utilities Service. Scott recently helped establish the first county created Infrastructure Bank in Pennsylvania, which helps municipalities fund/execute critical infrastructure-related projects.
