Andrew focuses his practice on litigation. He is an associate in the firm's Philadelphia office.

Prior to joining the firm, Andrew was a law clerk for the Honorable John R. Padova, E.D., Pa. He was also a legal intern at the U.S. Attorney's Office, E.D.N.Y.

Andrew earned his undergraduate degree, cum laude, from Princeton University. Andrew earned this law degree, summa cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. While in law school, he was articles editor of University of Pennsylvania Law Review volume 165.

Experience

Secured an important ruling, in conjunction with co-counsel, from the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court on behalf of the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC) in a highly publicized and long-running dispute with Highmark Inc. and Pennsylvania's Attorney General. At issue was whether consent decrees to maintain in-network access for Highmark insureds at UPMC facilities should be extended, and the court ruled that the expiration date should be upheld. This ruling led to renewed negotiation, ultimately an agreement between the parties, and the withdrawal of all related lawsuits by the Commonwealth.
