Arthur primarily advises and represents companies and employees facing criminal and civil exposure, guiding them through internal investigations and resulting civil and criminal litigation. He has represented clients in state and federal courts throughout the country.

Arthur has extensive experience in matters involving federal corruption laws, healthcare fraud, regulation of complex technologies and civil rights litigation involving schools and universities. He has also litigated numerous commercial cases, including shareholder actions, contractual disputes, ownership disputes, fraud claims, consumer protection claims, trade secret actions, and privacy data breaches.

Arthur graduated from Temple University Beasley School of Law, magna cum laude, and the University of Pennsylvania, cum laude, where he was an offensive lineman on the football team. Arthur joined the firm after clerkships with the Honorable Mitchell S. Goldberg, U.S. District Court judge and the Honorable David R. Strawbridge, U.S. magistrate judge, U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Arthur is licensed to practice law in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
