Chad represents insurance carriers in complex coverage disputes and bad-faith claims. He has experience handling claims involving directors' and officers' liability, professional liability, general liability, and first-party property coverages.

Chad graduated magna cum laude from the University of Miami School of Law, where he graduated in the top 10 percent of his class. He was elected to membership in the Order of the Coif and earned the Dean's Certificate of Achievement in Torts and Federal Income Tax. While in law school, Chad served as executive editor of the University of Miami Business Law Review. He also received the George Paterson Endowed Scholarship and the Priscilla Jewett Schneller Scholarship. Prior to attending law school, Chad graduated from The College of New Jersey with a degree in business administration.

Chad is active with the Florida bar, currently serving on the editorial board of the Florida Bar Journal.

Experience

Successfully reached a global resolution of seven lawsuits brought against our client by a contractor seeking payment for alleged repairs, which were disputed. The resolution was reached after the client filed counterclaims against the contractor. The litigation required our team to review hundreds of similar lawsuits filed by the contractor and to extensively review the company's web site and social media to establish a pattern of conduct.
