Richard is an experienced real estate lawyer with a particularly strong background in all types of financing work and transactions/workouts involving secured and unsecured loans, from all sides of the table.

Richard currently serves on the Caron Board of Trustees at Caron Treatment Centers, a nationally recognized nonprofit provider of addiction and behavioral health treatment. He previously served as an ex-officio member and chair of the Philadelphia Advisory Board at Caron.

Richard earned his J.D. from the University of Miami School of Law, magna cum laude, where he was on the school's law review. He received a bachelor's degree in sociology from George Washington University.

Experience

Represented one of the nation's largest providers of post-acute care services in connection with a strategic joint venture that purchased from REIT landlords the real estate and buildings of 18 skilled nursing facilities that are leased by the client. The transaction also involved the sale of eight skilled nursing facilities by the client to third parties. The transaction drew on the experience of the firm's corporate, tax, real estate, and health care attorneys.

Represented Genesis HealthCare Corporation, a provider of short-term post-acute, rehabilitation, skilled nursing, and long-term care services, in the sale of its assets and the transfer of operations of 15 skilled nursing health care facilities in Texas to Regency REIT, LLC, a New York City-based real estate investment trust, and its affiliated health care operator, Regency Integrated Health Services, LLC.

Represented Valley Forge Convention Center Partners, LP in its $280 million sale of Pennsylvania-based Valley Forge Casino Resort to Boyd Gaming Corporation, an American gaming and hospitality company. This transaction drew on the experience of Cozen O'Connor's corporate, tax, real estate, litigation, and utility, environmental, and energy attorneys.

Represented The Arden Group in its $148.5 million acquisition of the BB&T Center, and an adjacent parking garage, in Charlotte, N.C. The 22-story, 567,835 sq. ft. office tower also features on-site retail, banking, and restaurant space and is The Arden Group's first investment in Charlotte.

Represented Rubenstein Partners, L.P., in connection with its acquisition of a 1.6 million sq. ft. office park complex in Atlanta for $265 million. The Class A property, Sanctuary Park, includes nine mid-rise buildings on 152 acres. In addition to handling the acquisition loan, the firm also negotiated and finalized a related joint venture agreement.

Represented a real estate investment firm in the $136 million acquisition of a New Jersey corporate center encompassing several four-story buildings, totaling approximately 820,000 sq. ft., on a 176-acre site. The deal included a $123 million term loan from a syndicate of lenders.
