Dave Walton, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Labor & Employment department, will be speaking at this webcast. This webcast will aid in-house counsel in mitigating risk and addressing the challenges of both preserving and capturing new forms of electronically stored information.

Topics include:

- The newest batch of technologies your team needs to be prepared for and how to handle each of them
- How organizations planning to implement emerging technologies can mitigate their risk
- The challenges that new forms of data present for preservation while focusing on the control of evidence, privacy concerns, and the ability of discovery tools to keep pace with technology
- What ways employees can use the latest and greatest applications and devices
