

What to Consider When Purchasing or Selling a Mobile Home Park/Manufactured Housing Community

Richard Close, a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice, will speak at an upcoming Manufactured Housing Educational Trust (MHET) Forum. Richard's presentation will identify and address crucial issues to consider when selling or buying a mobile home community in California including the property's rent increase history, the impact of current or potential rent control, current management/resident relations, and potential liability for acts of a prior owner.
