Save the dates now — April 27-28, 2011 — for next year’s Employment Law Institute so that you can enjoy the rich educational and networking experiences it offers. We know that you have come to rely on the Institute to update you on every important new development in employment law and practice. Rest assured that our planning team is hard at work to make sure that the wide variety of topics will address the most current and pressing workplace problems. Whether you represent employees, employers, are a human resource professional, CPA, or anyone else with an interest in employment law, the Institute is the perfect way to update yourself.

Speakers

Jeffrey I. Pasek is on the faculty.

Sarah A. Kelly, Carrie B. Rosen, L. Stephen Bowers, and David J. Walton will also be speakers at the conference.
