Cozen O'Connor will have several speakers at the LEA 82nd Spring Meeting & Educational Conference taking place in Philadelphia in June. Here is the list of speakers and their topics:

Welcome to Philadelphia: Birthplace of Insurance in America-Joseph A. Gerber will be part of the conference welcome providing the attendees with a history of the beginning of the insurance industry.

"The Truth, the Whole Truth, and Nothing but the Truth: Our Global Climate and the Insurance Industry's Response" - Peter Fontaine will be part of a panel for this presentation the will seek to shed light upon the scientifically demonstrable facts about our planet in terms of rising ocean levels; melting polar regions at both the North and South Poles; the severity, frequency and changing patterns of storms; disappearing land masses and other phenomena.

"The New Realities of Catastrophe Claims Handling: Larger, More Frequent Storms; Activist Governors; and Federal, State and Local Regulators" - Kellyn J. W. Muller and Peter Rossi will be part of a panel for this presentation discussing actual case studies drawn from fact patterns associated with recent major catastrophe losses including Super Storm Sandy. They will also explore the new challenges confronting property claims adjuster and their parent insurance companies when confronted with complex losses made only more challenging because of the active involvement of state governors, along with Federal, State and Local regulators.
