

Jeffrey Pasek Discusses Indiana's Religious Freedom Restoration Act in the Los Angeles Times

Tuesday, March 31, 2015

In an article titled "Indiana's Anti-LGBT Law is Even Worse Than it Seems," Jeffrey Pasek, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Labor & Employment Department, discusses Indiana's new state law SB 101, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, which is broader than existing federal law and differs from other state laws in significant ways. "Nothing like this exists under federal law," observes Jeff; under SB 101, those claiming religious grounds to justify discrimination "are much less likely to be challenged and much more likely to prevail."
