

How Getting a Prenup Strengthens Your Relationship

Monday, September 19, 2016

Jennifer Brandt, co-chair of Cozen O'Connor's Family Law practice, discusses how prenups can strengthen your relationship on Avvo Stories. Not acknowledging or addressing potentially scary financial situations may make some couples feel better because they are keeping their love “free” and “unburdened.” But there is no escaping money ups and downs. “A prenup causes couples to face, discuss, and understand their respective positions on money. It is crucial that they have this understanding before the marriage because the lack of communication often causes problems to arise after the marriage,” says Jennifer.
