

Ken Fisher Comments on 421-a Tax Exemption Program in Crain's New York Business

Thursday, July 2, 2015

Ken Fisher comments on the potential legal challenges related to the 421-a tax exemption program in a Crain's New York Business article. The article discusses developers' concerns over the re-vamped 421-a tax exemption program for housing, particularly a provision allowing the Real Estate Board of New York and the building trades to negotiate the program's wage mandate for construction workers.
