

The Skill You Should Acquire To Land Your Next Job

Sunday, March 19, 2017

Evan Berquist, an associate in Cozen O'Connor's Corporate and International Practice Groups, is quoted in Forbes about the growing importance of foreign language skills. The article discusses how, in response to an increasingly globalized world and economy, language fluency is a valuable tool for millennials in their job searches and careers. Evan explains that, "From my first job out of college to my current job now, I can say that Spanish language skills have helped me land every opportunity I've had for more than 12 years."
