

PBA Honors Cozen O'Connor with Promotion of Women Award

Monday, March 6, 2017

PHILADELPHIA, March 6, 2017 — Each year, The Pennsylvania Bar Association (PBA) Commission on Women receives scores of submissions from across the state in connection with its granting of three prestigious awards. This year, Cozen O'Connor has been chosen as the winner of the PBA Women in the Profession's Promotion of Women Award.

PBA Women in the Profession's Promotion of Women Award was established to honor Pennsylvania law firms, corporate law departments, or other organizations providing legal services, either public or private, that instituted programs or initiatives that have resulted in helping women lawyers continue and advance in their professional careers while maintaining a work/life balance. The firm's selection as the 2017 winner of the Women in the Profession's Promotion of Women recognizes the firm's longstanding successful promotion and advancement of women across the firm, as well as the firm's commitment to continue the growth and development of our Women's Initiative Program, which provides mentoring and networking opportunities across the firm. The award will be presented to the firm on May 11 at the PBA's annual meeting in Pittsburgh.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970 and ranked among the top 100 law firms in America, Cozen O'Connor has more than 750 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 26 offices across two continents.