

David Sunshine Quoted in the National Journal Regarding Pandora

Tuesday, April 22, 2014

David Sunshine, of the Intellectual Property Group, was recently quoted in a National Journal article titled, "Here Are 1,400 Song You Might Never Hear Again on Your Pandora Station." The article explains how the music industry sued Pandora Media, claiming the internet radio service unfairly evaded paying millions of dollars on popular songs. David gave his opinion on the situation by stating, "The problem that [record labels] are going to face is, folks haven't been paying these royalties for a long time."

To read the full article, as well as more of David's quotes, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Intellectual Property

Industry Sectors

- Media & Entertainment