

Cozen O'Connor Named to Honor Roll for Welcoming Women Professionals

Wednesday, April 23, 2014

Philadelphia, April 23, 2014 – The Pennsylvania Bar Association's Commission on Women in the Profession named Cozen O'Connor to its "Honor Roll of Legal Organizations Welcoming Women Professionals." Cozen O'Connor was selected because of our programs and initiatives that help women lawyers continue and advance in their professional careers. The firm recognizes the value of retaining and promoting women legal professionals and providing women attorneys with the tools they need to advance in their professional careers while maintaining balance with the demands of family.

The honor roll will be published in the PBA's Commission on Women in the Profession's annual conference program and on the PBA website. You can read more about this distinction here.

Cozen O'Connor's Women's Initiative is co-chaired by Victoria L. Zellers and Kendall Kelly Hayden.
