

Sentencing in Micronesian Bribery Case Highlights DOJ's Commitment to Individual Prosecutions

Wednesday, June 26, 2019

Martin Bloor comments on the Micronesian bribery case in an article in The Anti-Corruption Report.

“Despite the fact that FCPA enforcement has been on the rise for a number of years and the message about compliance should be well known, there are still individuals who engage in widespread and blatant bribery schemes to obtain business for their companies,” said Martin.
