

Jennifer Brandt Discusses How Valentine's Day Adds Pressure to Marriages in MainStreet

Wednesday, February 12, 2014

In an article titled "Valentine's Effect Causes 40% to Explore Divorce," Jennifer Brandt, a member of the firm's Family Law Department, discusses how "Valentine's Day puts a lot of pressure on people to provide proof of their love for one another in one day... Because Valentine's Day forces us to assess our romantic relationships, many people realize that they are not happy in the situation they are in and there is no possibility of it improving. Thus, they may turn toward divorce to get a fresh start." To read the article, click here.
