

A.G. and Antitrust Law Pioneer: Bernie Nash '66

Thursday, November 9, 2017

Bernie Nash, co-chair of Cozen O'Connor's State Attorneys General practice, was featured in Brooklyn Law School's alumni notes. When Bernie Nash '66 moved to Washington, D.C., from New York after law school to work for the Securities and Exchange Commission, he planned to work for a few years and then move back home to continue his career. He never imagined spending 50 years practicing in D.C., and certainly couldn't predict that after empowering state attorneys general to file major lawsuits he would later defend clients in battles against those very A.G.s.
