

Real Estate Lawyers Are In High Gear

Wednesday, July 13, 2016

Jeff Leonard, chair of Cozen O'Connor's Business Law department, discusses the impact that the Philadelphia real estate market's record breaking volume and transaction amounts had on real estate attorneys in the Philadelphia Business Journal. Cozen O'Connor "staffed up" during the recession in anticipation of increased real estate activity and Jeff notes, "We're glad we did. The transactions are pretty fast and furious." Cozen O'Connor's real estate attorneys have recently been involved in the One Washington Square sale and represent Liberty Property Trust with its proposed Camden waterfront project.
