

Jim Schultz Discusses Pennsylvania General Assembly Budget Crisis

Tuesday, March 1, 2016

Jim Schultz, co-chair of Cozen O'Connor's Government Affairs practice group, discusses Pennsylvania's General Assembly budget crisis in The Legal Intelligencer. The lack of appropriations is affecting businesses across the area. Jim noted that, "The budget impasse in Harrisburg really does not impact law firms directly, but it certainly impacts our clients. Whether it's school districts, health care providers or developers, many clients depend on public funds to provide necessary services and make improvements to the communities across Pennsylvania. While there may be some downstream impact to law firms, the real impact is to our clients."
