

Jim Schultz Discusses LGBT Executive Orders in The Legal Intelligencer

Tuesday, April 12, 2016

Jim Schultz, chair of Cozen O'Connor's Government Law and Regulatory Affairs practice group, discusses two new executive orders from Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf designed to protect LGBT state employees and contractors from discrimination in The Legal Intelligencer. Jim said that, "This is an important step to eradicating potential discrimination in this commonwealth on the basis of someone's gender identity or the person they decide to love or marry." He added, "Holding state contractors and those who receive state funds to the same standard applied to state agencies makes good policy."
