Tuesday, September 30, 2014

Alycen Moss, a member of Cozen O'Connor's Global Insurance Department, is featured in an ACE white paper titled "Managing Home Renovation Risks for High Net Worth Homeowners." Alycen discusses workers compensation, commercial general liability, unpaid subcontractors, poor or faulty workmanship, and assuring worksite safety. "Alycen Moss... noted that it is not uncommon for malicious employees of a contractor or subcontractor to allege injuries or illnesses simply because the client is wealthy. This threat reaffirms the importance of conducting comprehensive background checks."
