

Cozen O'Connor Member Appointed to County Industrial Development Authority

Tuesday, January 1, 2013

PHILADELPHIA, February 4, 2013 – Adam Silverman, a member in Cozen O'Connor's Real Estate Group, was appointed by the Montgomery County Commissioners to the board of the Montgomery County Industrial Development Authority.

Silverman joined Cozen O'Connor in 2009 and focuses his real estate practice on commercial real estate and related transactions. He has represented numerous regional and national developers (including several real estate investment trusts) in a wide variety of matters, including the development of high-rise office towers, shopping centers, warehouses and mixed use developments, as well as portfolio acquisitions, joint ventures and merger transactions. He also represents lenders (including banks, pension funds, insurance companies and private equity funds) and borrowers in matters ranging from structured project finance to secured and securitized loan transactions. He represents landlords and tenants in office, retail and industrial leasing transactions, including complex build-to-suit transactions.
