

Howard Schweitzer Says Clinton Emails Are Wholly Different Than Predecessors

Tuesday, May 31, 2016

Howard Schweitzer, managing partner of Cozen O'Connor Public Strategies, discusses the latest developments regarding Hillary's emails on the McIntyre in the Morning radio show. When asked how Hillary Clinton's email usage differs from predecessors like Colin Powell, Howard says, "When Colin Powell did it, it was a very different time, obviously, very different as far as the use of email is concerned and it wasn't a secret to anybody at the State Department. It was fully blessed by the staff and it is wholly different than Hillary's use of email as far as what Colin Powell did."
