

Camille Miller Named a Client Choice 2017 Winner

Thursday, February 9, 2017

Philadelphia, February 9, 2017 - Camille Miller, co-chair of Cozen O'Connor's Intellectual Property Department, has been named a Client Choice 2017 winner for the Intellectual Property – Trademarks category in Pennsylvania. This is the third time Camille has been honored by this publication.

The Client Choice survey was conducted by International Law Office (ILO) and Lexology, with cooperation from the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC), polling only senior corporate counsel. When interviewed about Camille for the publication a client said, "without qualification or reservation Camille is in the top 1 percent of the best trademark attorneys with whom I have enjoyed the privilege of working." You can see what else clients had to say about Camille here.

Camille concentrates her practice in all aspects of intellectual property, specifically trademark, trade dress, copyright, unfair competition, right of privacy, right of publicity, domain names, counterfeiting, data privacy and related breaches, licensing, trade secret and franchising law, as well as all areas of intellectual property litigation, including patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret. She is an active member of the International Trademark Association, participating on Emerging Issues Subcommittee of the Issues and Policy Committee (2014-2016 and 2002-2004), Trademark Classification Committee (2012-2014), Trademark Trade Dress Committee (2008-2012), and Trademark Reporter Committee (2006-2008). She is also a member of the Trademark Legislative Committee of the Intellectual Property Organization, the Copyright Society of the U.S.A. and its Philadelphia Chapter, as well as the Philadelphia Intellectual Property Law Association. She is also a member of the National Women's Association and the Ben Franklin American Inn of Court.
