

Cozen O'Connor Adds Commercial Litigator Mark Rabinowitz

Monday, November 15, 2010

Mark A. Rabinowitz has joined Cozen O'Connor as a member of the firm's Chicago office. Joining from Neal Gerber & Eisenberg LLP where he was a partner in the litigation practice group, Rabinowitz represents corporations, financial institutions, insurance companies, partnerships and individuals in a wide array of complex commercial litigation matters, including reinsurance, insurance coverage, securities fraud, copyright infringement, real estate, lender liability, consumer fraud class actions, breach of contract, probate and violations of the federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act.

"I'm very pleased to join Cozen O'Connor," said Rabinowitz. "With its superb commercial litigation, insurance, and reinsurance expertise, and national and international presence, Cozen provides an excellent platform from which to serve my clients and continue to develop my practice."

"Mark has a sterling reputation as a lawyer who has handled major 'bet-the-company' commercial and insurance litigation cases and we are excited to have him," said Tad Decker, President and CEO of Cozen O'Connor.

Recognized as a leader in the 2008, 2009 and 2010 editions of Chambers USA, Rabinowitz earned his J.D. from Harvard Law School in 1978, and his A.B. summa cum laude, and Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Illinois in 1975. He is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Illinois, the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois, the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, the U.S. Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and the U.S. Supreme Court.
