

Grossman Named Co-Office Managing Partner of Cozen O'Connor Washington, D.C., Office

Tuesday, February 20, 2018

WASHINGTON, DC – February 20, 2018 - Jonathan Grossman has been appointed Cozen O'Connor Washington, D.C., Co-office Managing Partner. Grossman will lead along with fellow Co-office Managing Partner Barry Boss to guide the office of more than 65 attorneys and government relations professionals. The firm's Washington, D.C., office, which opened in 2001, offers a wide range of services in matters involving litigation, intellectual property, regulatory, investigations, policy work, and business transactions.

"Jonathan has been a part of the firm's Washington D.C. office over a period of substantial growth and diversification of practices," said Vincent R. McGuinness, Cozen O'Connor President and Managing Partner. "We look forward to having Jonathan help lead the Washington, D.C., office as we continue to grow our presence in the D.C. market."

Grossman, a member in Cozen O'Connor's Business Law Department, advises clients on antitrust, consumer protection, and other government regulatory matters, including civil and criminal government investigations, mergers and acquisitions, counseling on antitrust, consumer protection and advertising issues, litigation, and legislative issues. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan in 1992 and his law degree from Harvard Law School in 2000.

About Cozen O'Connor

Established in 1970, Cozen O'Connor has more than 750 attorneys who help clients manage risk and make better business decisions. The firm counsels clients on their most sophisticated legal matters in all areas of the law, including litigation, corporate, and regulatory law. Representing a broad array of leading global corporations and middle market companies, Cozen O'Connor services its clients' needs through 27 offices across two continents.

###