

Representing a Professional Sports Franchise

Friday, February 7, 2020

Chad Pasternack was recently a presenter at the University of Miami School of Law. He spoke during the course titled, "Representing a Professional Sports Franchise." Chad discussed an overview of the insurance claim process; specifically touching on what insurance is, types of claims, unique insurable interests in sports, first party claims, Subrogation, and more.

For more information on this course, click here.

Related Practice Areas

- Insurance Coverage