

What Will You Learn:

- When regulatory proceedings qualify as the making of a “claim”
- Which communications constitute a demand on the Insured qualifying as a “claim”
- Which excuses for untimely reporting are accepted by the courts
- When a Wrongful Act has been committed prior to the retro date
- When extended reporting periods apply
- How to determine the continuity date when defined in policy exclusions
- How to uncover “related” prior / pending proceedings against the Insured
- How to ask the right questions regarding the Insured’s “prior knowledge”
